

BARENBOIM-SAID
AKADEMIE

Barenboim-Said Akademie gGmbH | Französische Str. 33D | 10117 Berlin

The Barenboim-Said Akademie is currently seeking to fill the following professorships with a starting date October 1st, 2023:

one Professor of Violin and Group Music Practice (W2) part time (50%, unlimited contract)
and one Professor of Viola and Group Music Practice (W2) part time (50%, two-year limited contract)

Since 2016, the state-recognized Barenboim-Said Akademie (BSA) has been teaching talented young musicians, primarily from the Middle East and North Africa, in the pedagogical spirit of Edward Said and Daniel Barenboim. In addition to intensive study in music theory and performance, each program also features study in the humanities. Students learn to develop their own ideas within a broad, interdisciplinary, and transcultural educational setting. The Akademie shares its facilities with the Pierre Boulez Hall, designed by Frank Gehry. The language of instruction is English.

For more information, please visit our website: <https://www.barenboimsaid.de/en>

We are looking for applicants (m/f/d) who have outstanding artistic achievements, an international reputation, experience in higher education and can comprehensively represent the areas of violin/viola and group music practice.

Responsibilities:

- Individual instruction of students in violin/viola in English
- Group Music instruction, including both violin/viola students as well as students from other studios at the Akademie
- Independent artistic practice
- Participation in the academic administration of the Akademie

Please submit your full application electronically to jobs@barenboimsaid.de until April 15th, 2023. The person of contact is the Rector, Prof. Dr. Regula Rapp.

BSA highly encourages applications by women and people with a migration background to further increase the diversity of our faculty. Applications by people with severe disabilities will be given preference in case of comparable qualifications.

In case of any questions, please refer to jobs@barenboimsaid.de.